

Stewardship Review Volunteers Needed!

We need you

Thanks to the donors who generously contributed $52,500,000, United Way invests in 133 programs designed to improve the well-being of children, youth, parents, families and seniors in our community.

To ensure the continued high quality of these programs, United Way is recruiting community volunteers to help us review the progress of these programs. You'll get to see first-hand how your contribution is making a difference!

Everyone can participate

It doesn't matter who you are -- a manager, an accountant, pharmacist, sales person, military member, college student or stay at home mom. etc. All you need is a desire to help our community.

Feel like doing some good?

Volunteer teams review and assess partner agencies on quality standards which measure an agency's ability to demonstrate success and competency:

- Volunteer Governance
- Financial Accountability
- Administrative Efficiency
- Development of Non-United Way Resources

Stewardship Review helps ensure that donor dollars are invested in agencies and programs that are making a real difference in people's lives in our community.

What's involved?

Eight teams of 8-10 volunteers per team will examine 65 agencies. A team usually meets for two hours; 3-4 times over a six week period. Team members are asked to review agency submissions online and report their findings in team meetings.

It's easy to sign up!

If you would like to become a United Way Stewardship Review volunteer for our community, please contact Esther Cantu, ecantu@unitedwaysatx.org.
