United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County – Fights for safe and healthy children, successful students, strong individuals and families, and safety net services in every neighborhood of our community. [100]

United Way - Ready Children – Ensures all children are happy, healthy and ready to succeed in kindergarten. [901]

United Way - Successful Students – Encourages young people to graduate and become successful adults. [905]

United Way - Strong Individuals and Families – Helps individuals and families achieve self-sufficiency. [902]

United Way - Safety Net – Supports individuals and families with their most immediate needs—food, clothing and shelter. [903]

United Way - 2-1-1 Help Line – Provides a free and confidential 24/7/365 telephone service for individuals and families that provides information and referrals for health and human services. [715]

United Way - Mission United – Connects active duty military, veterans, and family members to community and designated resources and advocates for those with unique needs. [716]

United Way - Volunteer Center – Refers volunteers to more than 1,000 programs in area nonprofit organizations; Helps United Way-affiliated and unaffiliated organizations. [725]

United Way - Dual Generation - San Antonio – Supports multi-generational families to disrupt the cycle of poverty by providing quality childcare, youth development and continuing adult education. [906]

United Way - Women United – Members support philanthropy and education through its signature cause, the Childcare Scholarship program, while networking and participating in events and volunteer projects. [904]

United Way - Emerging Leaders Council – Engages young professionals in our community aged 21 to 45 who make a difference through volunteerism, advocacy and philanthropy. [910]

United Way - Endowment and Legacy Fund – Ensures long-term sustainability of funding for agency programs. [130]

Alamo Colleges Foundation – Increases economic stability by providing a helpline and case management services to give Alamo Colleges students the help they need to stay in school. [720]

Alpha Home – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing those with a substance use disorder a 24-hour hotline, treatment and support to lead sober and productive lives. [205]

American Heart Association - San Antonio – Supports general operating expenses and program work to create a world free of heart disease and stroke. [530]

American Indians in Texas at the Spanish Colonial Missions – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by focusing on the healing of men and boys who are perpetrators and survivors of family violence. [750]

American Red Cross, San Antonio Chapter – Provides disaster response after local disasters to individuals and families. [101]

Any Baby Can of San Antonio – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by supporting families in becoming or remaining stable following the birth or diagnosis of a child or youth with a special healthcare need. [210]

Arc of San Antonio, The – Supports general operating expenses and program work to enrich the lives of children and adults with intellectual and other developmental disabilities. [215]

Autism Community Network – Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing developmental screenings for infants and children to provide early diagnosis and long-term outcomes for children and their families. [740]

AVANCE - San Antonio – Increases economic stability by supporting parents of young children through a career readiness program; Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing parenting and financial literacy classes and a safe, encouraging learning environment. [300]

Big Brothers Big Sisters of South Texas – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing training and mentoring; Reduces the number of child abuse victims through training and mentoring that prevents victimization and lessens the effects of trauma. [305]

Blessed Sacrament Academy – Increases availability of quality early childcare by achieving national accreditation and improving learning environments for young children in low-income areas. [755]
Boys and Girls Clubs of San Antonio – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade by providing daily reading sessions, health and life skills, game time, STEM club, fine arts and sports while identifying behaviors that negatively impact academic futures. [315]

Boysville – Provides shelter for children birth to 17 who cannot remain in their home. [320]

Brighton Center – Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by screening, identifying and providing intervention for children with disabilities or delays through early childhood education and therapy. [220]

Catholic Charities, Archdiocese of San Antonio – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade through intensive tutoring and individualized plans to prepare students for STAAR reading tests; Provides clothing, food and utility assistance to individuals and families in need; Provides shelter for women over the age of 18 who are pregnant and/or parenting and experiencing homelessness. [330]

CentroMed – Supports general operating expenses and program work that provides accessible primary care services of superior quality. [600]

Child Advocates San Antonio (CASA) – Supports general operating expenses and program work to recruit, train and supervise court-appointed volunteer advocates for abused and neglected children and youth. [570]

Children’s Association for Maximum Potential (CAMP) – Supports general operating expenses and program work to strengthen and inspire individuals with special needs. [225]

Children’s Bereavement Center – Decreases chronic absenteeism and disciplinary/behavior referrals by providing bereavement therapy and informing parents/guardians of services for grief counseling. [760]

Children’s Hospital of San Antonio – Supports general operating expenses and program work for a mobile clinic to ensure children receive essential services such as wellness exams, treatment for minor illnesses and vaccinations in one convenient location. [545]

Children’s Shelter, The – Provides emergency shelter for children birth to 16 years old in crisis. [340]

ChildSafe – Decreases disciplinary/behavioral referrals by working with school systems to adopt trauma-informed policies and practices; Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing forensic interviews and trauma-focused therapy to lower risks for abuse and destructive behavior. [560]

Christian Assistance Ministry – Provides clothing, food and utility assistance to individuals and families in need. [670]

Chrysalis Ministries, Inc. – Increases economic stability for those who are or were incarcerated by providing life-skills, job-readiness and employment training. [500]

CI-NOW (Community Information-NOW) – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide data, tools, analysis and training to inform decisions to improve Texas communities. [735]

City Year – Increases math proficiency by the end of 8th grade; Decreases disciplinary/behavioral referrals for at-risk students and promotes whole school engagement. [335]

Clarity Child Guidance Center – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing mental health treatment services for children and families. [290]

Comal County United Way – Supports general operating expenses and program work. [825]

Communities In Schools – Decreases disconnected youth (not working/not in school) ages 16 to 24 through case management for young men of color and offers trauma-informed/life skills support for all disconnected youth; decreases disciplinary/behavioral referrals to address underlying reasons why youth drop out of school. [350]

Crosspoint, Inc. – Supports general operating expenses and program work to empower individuals to lead productive lives. [450]

Daughters of Charity Services of San Antonio – Provides utility assistance to individuals and families in need. [410]

DePelchin Children’s Center – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing parent education and support for those at-risk for child abuse or neglect. [765]

Eastside Promise Zone – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide Eastside residents with opportunity to improve their quality of life and connect them to quality education, good jobs, affordable housing and a safe place to live. [690]

Education Investment Foundation – Decreases chronic absenteeism by partnering with school staff, community, families and other partners to reduce barriers affecting attendance; Increases economic stability by providing education and workforce training to develop needed skills to obtain a job or increase income. [770]
Ella Austin Community Center – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade by working with students in grades 1-3 to develop individualized plans for those most academically at-risk in reading. [610]

Endeavors – Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing child and adult mental health services; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing access to safe housing for chronically homeless women with disabilities and their children. [662]

Family Service Association of San Antonio – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade by providing tutoring for struggling readers; Decreases chronic absenteeism and disciplinary/behavioral referrals by providing case management; Increases economic stability by helping underemployed/unemployed people with quality job training; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by expanding prevention and intervention resources, improving safety for adults and children seeking counseling; Decreases wage disparity by assisting women of color in building assets and mitigating barriers; Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing parent education and early childhood mental health services; Increases availability of quality early childcare in underserved zip codes by increasing teacher knowledge and understanding of developmental milestones in highly vulnerable areas; Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing families with case management, connections to critical resources and counseling. [615]

Family Violence Prevention Services – Provides shelter for individuals and families experiencing domestic violence; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing intervention services to perpetrators and counseling to victims; Increases economic stability through education and workforce opportunities that will increase the household income for shelter families. [565]

Girl Scouts of Southwest Texas – Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing Kinder Camps focused on increasing social-emotional learning, language and communication for children entering school. [360]

Good Samaritan Community Services – Decreases chronic absenteeism and disciplinary/behavioral referrals through programs that teach young people leadership skills, conflict resolution and that build self-esteem; Reduces the number of child abuse victims; Ensures children are ready for kindergarten. [415]

Goodwill Industries of San Antonio – Decreases disconnected youth (not working/not in school) ages 16 to 24 by offering career and job placement services; Increases economic stability by providing adult job placement programs and affordable vocational training programs. [245]

Greater Randolph Area Service Program (GRASP) – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing services, including mental health counseling, for seniors experiencing physical abuse, neglect or extortion; Provides clothing, food and utility assistance to individuals and families in need; Provides services after local disasters for individuals and families. [620]

Guadalupe County United Way – Supports general operating expenses and program work. [800]

Guardian House – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing mental health counseling and supervised visitation to improve parent-child interactions. [775]

Haven for Hope – Provides shelter for individuals and families to enable them to transition from homelessness to housing; Increases economic stability by strengthening the system that enables people to obtain and maintain permanent housing. [630]

Healy-Murphy Center – Increases availability of quality early childcare by providing additional childcare slots for children 0 - 3 years and maintaining a high level of education and care for every child; Decreases disconnected youth (not working/not in school) ages 16 to 24 by providing one-on-one instruction, life skills, on-campus health clinic, case management and parent engagement. [365]

Jefferson Outreach for Older People – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide no-cost personalized supportive services that help enhance the quality of life for older adults. [455]

Joint Base San Antonio - Fort Sam Houston Youth Programs – Decreases chronic absenteeism by assisting youth and parents in adapting to a new situation, school, grade or installation by providing tools and resources. [550]

Joint Base San Antonio - Lackland Youth Programs – Decreases chronic absenteeism by assisting youth and parents in adapting to a new situation, school, grade or installation by providing tools and resources. [885]

Joint Base San Antonio - Randolph Youth Programs – Decreases chronic absenteeism by assisting youth and parents in adapting to a new situation, school, grade or installation by providing tools and resources. [580]

Kerr County United Way – Supports general operating expenses and program work. [835]

Lifetime Recovery – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing those with a substance use disorder a 24-hour hotline, treatment and support to lead sober and productive lives. [200]
Madonna Neighborhood Center – Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing a Kinder Camp focused on increasing social-emotional learning, language and communication for children entering school. [645]

Martinez Street Women’s Center – Decreases disciplinary/behavioral referrals by providing at-risk girls with support services to address behavior issues; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by offering violence prevention classes, parenting programs, healing circles and other services. [780]

Masters Leadership Program of Greater San Antonio – Supports general operating expenses and program work to train professionals throughout the community for nonprofit board leadership roles. [665]

Meals on Wheels San Antonio – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing day services for those with Alzheimer’s and dementia and by providing respite, education and support for their caregivers. [605]

Mission Road Ministries – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing day services for those who are 22 and older with intellectual and developmental disabilities and offering respite and stress reduction for family members who care for them. [255]

Northeast Senior Assistance (NESA) – Supports general operating expenses and program work to empower seniors to live independently. [430]

Presa Community Center – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade and math proficiency by the end of 8th grade by offering an out-of-school time curriculum to all grade levels; Provides clothing and food assistance to individuals and families in need. [650]

Rape Crisis Center, The – Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing advocacy, case management and counseling for sexual assault survivors; Provides a 24-hour crisis hotline for survivors of sexual violence and their families or loved ones. [575]

Respite Care of San Antonio – Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing day-out respite care services for caregivers with children with special needs and their siblings; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by recruiting and training competent foster parents for children with special needs. [270]

Restore Education – Decreases disconnected youth ages 16 to 24 by creating education plans for those needing GED or high school equivalency; Increases economic stability by providing Bexar County’s at-risk adult population with case management, crisis intervention and job readiness, in addition to a broad array of academic programming leading to college and workforce success. [785]

Ride Connect Texas – Supports general operating expenses and program work to give seniors and people with disabilities the transportation needed to stay healthy and connected to the community. [285]

Rise Recovery – Decreases disciplinary/behavioral referrals by engaging youth with substance use issues in peer-to-peer and group support, as well as family engagement sessions; Interrupts the cycle of family violence by providing those with a substance use disorder a 24-hour hotline, treatment and support to lead sober and productive lives. [260]

Roy Maas’ Youth Alternatives – Decreases disconnected youth (not working/not in school) ages 16 to 24 through emergency and residential care, including temporary housing and counseling for children and families; Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing mental health programs for children and families to improve family relationships. [275]

SA Youth – Supports general operating expenses and program work to help low-income children stay in school and provide young adults high-school credit recovery and workforce training. [345]

Salvation Army, The – Provides food and utility assistance to individuals and families in need; Provides shelter for individuals and families experiencing homelessness; Provides disaster response after local disasters to individuals and families. [115]

SAMMinistries – Provides utility assistance to individuals and families in need. [661]

San Antonio AIDS Foundation – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide a continuum of care to low-income HIV-positive men, women and transgender individuals. [540]

San Antonio Christian Hope Resource Center – Increases economic stability by providing an at-risk adult population with case management, crisis intervention, job readiness and access to academic programming leading to college and workforce success. [790]

San Antonio Council on Alcohol and Drug Awareness – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide prevention, intervention and recovery support services for children and adults. [230]

San Antonio Food Bank – Provides food assistance through food distribution programs to individuals and families in need; Provides nutritional products and education to families and individuals in need. [125]
San Antonio Public Library Foundation, The – Supports general operating expenses and program work to strengthen the library in service to our community. [745]

San Antonio Sports – Supports general operating expenses and program work to have healthy kids, places to play and events that impact. [370]

Seton Home – Supports general operating expenses and program work to break the cycle of abuse and poverty by providing a caring home, education and support services to transform the lives of pregnant and parenting teen mothers and their children. [390]

St. Paul Lutheran Child Development Center – Increases availability of quality early childcare by providing training and mentoring for teachers at childcare centers with limited quality programs in high-risk zip codes. [425]

St. Peter - St. Joseph Children’s Home – Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing trauma-informed mental health tele-therapy. [385]

Texas Diaper Bank – Provides diapers, incontinence and feminine hygiene products to individuals and families in need. [675]

ThriveWell Cancer Foundation – Supports general operating expenses and program work by funding cancer research, providing patient support and offering programs to improve the quality of life for patients and their families. [395]

United Way in Kendall County – Supports general operating expenses and program work to serve residents of Kendall County. [815]

Urban Strategies – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade and math proficiency by the end of 8th grade by delivering case management services to families by partnering with UTSA to provide youth curriculum support. [795]

USO San Antonio – Supports general operating expenses and program work to provide support services to deployed troops, military families, wounded warriors, their families and families of the fallen. [515]

YMCA of Greater San Antonio – Increases reading proficiency by the end of 3rd grade by integrating a curriculum into afterschool and summer sites; Decreases disconnected youth (not working/not in school) ages 16 to 24 by serving as a safe place and connecting vulnerable youth to support services; Reduces the number of child abuse victims by providing respite care for children experiencing trauma, homelessness, stress and emergency crisis; Increases availability of quality early childcare by ensuring all families with financial needs have access to quality early learning and care; Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by conducting early developmental screenings, and providing social-emotional learning and language-communication skills for children entering school. [660]

Young Women’s Christian Association – Decreases wage disparity by launching a public awareness campaign focused on wage disparity between white men and women of color and advocating for systems change and respect for diversity; Increases availability of quality early childcare by providing additional childcare slots for low-income families with children ages 0 - 3; Ensures children are ready for kindergarten by providing Kinde Camps to increase social-emotional learning and language-communication skills for children entering school. [405]